NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your health information.

You may request a copy of our notice at any time. We reserve the right to make changes to our privacy practices. You have the right to request that we amend your health information

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION FOR TREATMENT, PAYMENT, AND HEALTHCARE OPERATIONS

We use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations. We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you. We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you. We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our health care operations.

AUTHORIZATION: In addition to our use of your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time.

TO YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS: We must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of this Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other persons but only if you agree that we may do so.

PERSONS INVOLVED IN CARE: We may use or disclose health information to notify, or assist in the notification of a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care, of your location, your general condition or death. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information, we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such uses or disclosures. In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays, or other similar forms of health information.

MARKETING HEALTH-RELATED SERVICES: We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.

REQUIRED BY LAW: We may use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law. We may disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes.

APPOINTMENT REMINDERS: We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with appointment reminders (such as voicemail messages, post cards, electronic communication, or letters).

PATIENT RIGHTS: You have the right to look at or get copies of your health information. We will use the format you request unless we cannot reasonably do so. You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your health information.

DISCLOSURE ACCOUNTING: You have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclose your health information for purposes, other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations and certain activities.

RESTRICTIONS: You have the right to request that we place additional restrictions on or use or disclosure of your health information.

ALTERNATIVE COMMUNICATION: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information by alternative means or to alternative locations.

ELECTRONIC NOTICE: If you receive this notice on our website or by electronic mail (e-mail) you are entitled to received this notice in written form.
